

INTERIOR DESIGNER

STUTT GART LOCATION

We are currently looking for an interior designer for our Stuttgart location. You will support us as a project manager and assume individual responsibility for the coordination of projects. In the process, you will benefit from the cooperation within our team with more than 40 years of experience in the hotel, spa and gastronomy industry. GEPLAN DESIGN stands for individual, high-quality and distinctive interior design in Germany and abroad, which we oversee from the design stage up to implementation.

YOUR CHALLENGES IN OUR COMPANY

- Development of individual concepts
- Management of premium projects
- Planning tasks in accordance with work phases 1-8 (LPH 1-8)
- Travel activities in the area of project coordination
- Communication with all project participants
- Preparation of competition documents
- Development of mood boards and presentations

WHAT YOU BRING ALONG

- University degree in interior design or architecture or comparable studies
- Several years of professional experience, ideally in the area of hotel, spa, gastronomy and office, in all work phases (LPH 1-8)
- Very good skills in working with CAD programs, preferably with Vectorworks as well as good knowledge of Cinema 4D
- Good command of English is desirable
- Experienced in working with MS Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- You are creative, team-minded and work independently and reliably

WE OFFER YOU

- An unlimited employment relationship, flexible working hours and mobile work possible
- Participation in varied projects for renowned clients in Germany and abroad
- Collaboration with an interdisciplinary, open-minded and appreciative team of 25 colleagues at the Stuttgart and Hamburg locations, as well as double know-how at the top with the twin brothers Rolf and Cord Glantz
- Flat hierarchies and short decision-making paths
- Offers of further training and internal workshops on various topics, like, for instance, product design
- Regular massages in the office
- Fresh fruit basket

Your heart beats for interior design and assuming responsibility is nothing new for you? If so, we are looking forward to receiving your application with CV, certificates, portfolio and salary requirement by e-mail at info@geplan.de.
